Getting to Know...Louise Knight

Job Title: Accounts Payable

When did you start working at Ranger College? June 1, 2010

The coolest place I have ever been: Cozumel, Mexico on a cruise.

Favorite place to eat in Texas? El Fenix Mexican Restaurant in Dallas

Where can we find you on a Friday night? On the road to pick up my great grandkids.

Favorite television or movie character: Patrick Swayze in Dirty Dancing and Ghost.

Guilty pleasure: Running off to the casino for the weekend.

Favorite Ranger College Moment: Hutchinson, Kansas for the men's basketball national championship.

Weekly Ranger Athletics Recap

The Ranger College baseball team got back to their winning ways this week defeating Spartan Post-Grad Academy 2-0 and 13-1 in a double-header at Ellis Burks field. Coach Norwood's team has one final tune-up this week against Hill College before heading to the NJCAA Region 5 Tournament.

Kudos

The Welding Department would like to thank Ray Lopez for delivering on his promise to put on a cookout for the welding classes!

Last semester, Ray asked if the welding class could bring the old Ranger College smoker back to life. Because of age and use, the smoker was in poor shape. The Welding Department built a new firebox and installed bigger smoke tables. Unfortunately, Ray was not able to get to the big cookout last semester after becoming ill. However, Mr. Lopez made it back this semester and put on a spectacular feed for the students in the Welding Department. While fajitas were a huge hit with the class, the best part came when Ray picked up a guitar and performed some live music for the class.
